We will be happy to create your artwork for you for an agreed fee. Artwork will be approved by you before posting to the site.

News and Events

One of the aims of The Family NoticeBoard is to support the local community. Community News and events items will be offered free of charge. There is a charge of £5 for Nearly New and Jumble Sales, Fetes and Fairs.

Commercial news, events, articles, editorial and blogs submitted will be subject to a charge or we can offer free editorial space supported by advertising. Please contact us to find out more.

Web page

If you don't have a website or would like to increase your online presence we can offer your own bespoke page within the site. Please contact us to discuss our flexible rates and options.

Blogs

We welcome guest blogs and articles on a range of subjects. If you’d like to be involved or have some ideas of your own please let us know.

- Banners will be placed on the site for one or six calendar months following receipt of payment or at a later date specified by you.
- Payment should be made in advance in full. We accept cheques, BACS, direct transfer or Paypal.
- Once posted on the site we do not offer a refund for any bookings made for six months or less.
- We reserve the right not to accept and/or remove advertising.
- Acceptance of an advertisement does not constitute a recommendation by the editors. Visitors to the site or readers of the magazine should expect to make their own enquiries and comparisons and we accept no liability for loss, damage or difficulties arising from contacts made through The Family NoticeBoard, from errors or omissions or from claims made by advertisers.
- The Family NoticeBoard is not VAT registered.
- Prices are correct at February 2014.
